PREFACE

This directory identifying Chiefs of State and Cabinet members of foreign governments is based upon information current as of the publication date. Completely revised editions are issued each month. Upon being replaced, the obsolete directories should be destroyed.

Because it is intended primarily as a reference aid this publication includes as many governments of the world as is considered practicable, some of them not yet fully independent and others not officially recognized by the United States. Regimes with which there are no diplomatic exchanges are indicated by the initials "NDE."

For the convenience of the user, a key to abbreviations is included. Governments are listed in alphabetical order according to the most commonly used version of each country's name. Official country designations are resorted to only when necessary to avoid confusion.

ANGOLA

(Angola received its independence from the Portuguese on 11 November 1975. There are now two governments in Angola, each claiming to be the legal government. One government—under the leadership of the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola—is based in Luanda. The other government—under the joint auspices of the National Front for the Liberation of Angola and the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola—is based in Huambo.)

CAMBODIA

(On 17 April 1975 the Government of the Khmer Republic surrendered to Khmer Communist (KC) forces. The new Phnom Penh regime has not issued a complete list of leaders of its successor government, and for the indefinite future the regime will probably portray the past KC front government, the Royal Government of National Union, as Cambodia's governing body. The following is a list of officials who hold positions in that government.)
